Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce and Vegetables.

PORTLAND, February 13.—There is considered the lag end of the wheat season, as only about one-fifth of the grain crop of 1905 remains in the warehouses. This amounts to about 10,000,000 bushels, some of which is kept by buyers on speculation. "Some farmers choose to hold over until the next harvest," said a member of the firm of Patterson, Smith & Pratt today, "as they desire to take chances on any advance that may take place."

Dressed hogs have been of light receipt on Front street for several weeks, and retailers have been driven to their wits' end to obtain enough to supply the demand. All kinds of carcasses, big and little, are disposed of without difficulty on arrival.
